

STEPHANIE BRICK

▪ SEED AWARD OF DISTINCTION ▪ STUDENT APPLICATION

SPONSORED BY: Stephanie Brick Design and g.gard.design

AWARD: The SEED Award consists of a $600.00 cash award and certificate of distinction.

ELIGIBILITY: All active SEED members of the current academic year are eligible and encouraged to apply.

SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS: Applicants should copy, paste, and answer the questions below in an email to: seed@stephaniebrickdesign.com Applications should take approximately 15 minutes to complete.

SELECTION CRITERIA: Awarded in recognition of substantial contribution to the promotion of sustainability, this award will go to a student who has initiated great effort to participate in and promote sustainable design outside of the classroom. All applications will be reviewed, and final selection determined, by the SEED Award of Distinction Advisory Board, comprised of professors, administrators, and professionals in the fields of design and sustainability.

DEADLINE: All applications must be received by Thursday, April 13, 2017, 11:59 pm.

Additional information about the establishment of this award and the Advisory Board may be found at: www.stephaniebrickdesign.com/seed.html

Name:

Email:

Major:

Class standing (freshman, sophomore, etc.):

Position or years of membership in SEED:

In 300 words or less, describe your participation in, promotion of, and contributions to SEED and its mission. Specifically address the following points:

- Describe the overall nature of the SEED projects in which you participated, then describe specifically how you contributed.
- Describe any sustainable groups or endeavors in which you are involved, outside of SEED and the classroom.
- Any other efforts relating to your promotion of the mission of SEED.